Residents enjoy a Sunday in the Park

By Brenda Bunting
Editor

"It was an absolute success," said Carlene Walker, chairman of the third annual "I Love Pahokee Day" held Sunday, March 21 in the park next to the library.

In spite of the rain drops that forced some of the performances into the community building instead of on the outdoor stage, turn out was good at the event.

"People enjoyed coming out for a relaxed day in the park with friends and family," said Mrs. Walker, who also expressed her pleasure for all the talented performers who participated in the Sunday in the Park event.

Winners of the 3rd annual bake off contest were announced on Sunday afternoon. They were: Section I Baking, Class A, Cakes and Cupcakes, first place and second place went to Alice Whitaker for her Italian Creme Cake and her carrot cake. Sandra Jarriel won third place for her carrot cake.

In Class B, Cookies and Brownies, Evelyn Clark took first place for her Granny's Sugar Cookies and under Breads, rolls, and muffins, David Sanders took first place for his Sourdough bread.

Police in South Bay vote for union

By Brenda Bunting
Editor

Six officers in South Bay have voted in a union to represent them on their jobs.

They will join the Palm Beach County Police Benevolent Association after a 15-day waiting period during which time the ballots will be validated.

Five officers voted for union representation and one eligible officer did not vote, according to Jim Barker of the Florida Public Employees Relations Commission.

South Bay Police Chief Roy Humston said he is not yet sure what the PBA will do for the officers.

"It's a matter of negotiations," he said. "I presume the Police Benevolent Association will have contract negotiations."

Chief Humston said he was not surprised to learn that five of his seven officers had voted for the PBA, since South Bay police officers are the lowest paid in the county, but with the city's budget restraints, is not sure if a union will help them get raises.

The city will be reviewing their budget again on April 7, according to City Clerk Virginia Walker, but since the PBA has no contract yet, police raises will not be considered in the review.

In two separate accidents

Four died in canals last week

By Brenda Bunting
Editor

Two separate accidents within two hours of each other left four people dead in the Glades last Thursday evening.

Belle Glade Police have released the name of the man who drowned in the Hillsborough Canal after a traffic accident at approximately 9 p.m., March 19.

Donald L. Robinson, age 44, of Jamaica, died when his 1982 Ford was rear ended and forced off the road and into the canal.

Police say a 1981 blue Pontiac driven by Ricardo Hernandez struck Robinson's car from the rear while Robinson was attempting to turn left onto Wedgworth Bridge, off old State Road 80.

Robinson's car submerged in the canal and it was said he could not swim. The Belle Glade Police Department Dive Rescue Team searched for the body but were unable to find him until the next day.

Mr. Hernandez and a passenger of the Pontiac were transported by ambulance to Glades General Hospital emergency room for treatment.

Officers say charges are pending against Mr. Hernandez.

A grandmother and her two grandchildren died when their car skidded off the road at the corner of Airport and Sam Senter Road at approximately 10:20 p.m.

Carolyn Eubanks, age 44 and grandchildren Todd Black, 20 months old and William Black, five months old all died when their car, which was headed eastbound, skidded into a guard rail and flipped over into the canal.

The mother of the children, Jennifer Black, age 19, was also in the car. She was taken to Glades General Hospital and treated for her injuries. She was released March 20. The grandmother, daughter and children were all from Palm Beach Gardens.

Fifth grade teacher...Debbie Lundy smacks lips with a wild pig as students Barrett Wiseman and John David Meeks look on in the "Kiss the Pig" contest during Glades Day School's Spring Fling fundraiser held Saturday, March 23. Ms. Lundy was the winner of the elementary school and headmaster Byron Walker and English teacher Mrs. Willie Poole won in the high school. The contest raised over $700 for the school's general fund. Animal lovers take note - the pig was later released to the wild.

Lakefront Legacy planned for May

The second annual "Lakefront Legacy," is scheduled for May 15 and 16 on the Glades Campus of Palm Beach Community College. Historical, cultural, and ethnic displays will recreate the legacy of the Glades area. "We're working hard to bring information which will be of interest to those who live in the Glades as well as those who travel to the area," said Brenda Lopez, Chairperson of this year's event. "Last year involved actually traveling from one place to another. This year everything will be contained in one place."

Lakefront Legacy is a joint project of the Legacy Committee, Palm Beach Community College, and various state agencies.

Meeting cancelled

The Department of Transportation has cancelled a meeting scheduled for this week at the Canal Point Community Center, according to Roswell Harrington. The meeting will be rescheduled, but at this time, no date has been set. Mr. Harrington said notices will be posted at key locations to let citizens know of the next date DOT will be in the area to discuss road problems, or you can call him at 924-2539.

The smell of barbecued ribs filled the air at the Afro Arts Festival last Saturday. There was something for everyone at the 12th annual event.

Approximately 5,000 people attended the event, hosted by Iota Omicron Zeta Chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc.

This year's theme was "The Spirit Lives On" with a sub-theme of "The Year of The Child."

The festival was held March 21 at Lake Shore Park. It kicked off with a parade down West Avenue A to Main Street and then over to the park via Martin Luther King Boulevard.

This year's Parade Marshal was Judge W. Matthew Stevenson, Circuit Judge of the 15th Judicial Circuit of Florida and the Keynote Speaker was Mr. Richard Ramsey, Principal of Lake Shore Middle School.

The Festival featured art exhibits, a carnival, a men's basketball tournament, a softball game, and local entertainment, along with James Smith and the Miami Boys. There was also a Miss Afro Arts Pageant on March 18th at the Lake Shore Civic Center.

A field became a dance floor for over 200 young people as they danced to rap music.

12th Annual Afro Arts Pageant held at L.S. civic center Thurs.

By Bill Phillips
Staff reporter

The Zeta Phi Beta Sorority presented its 12th Annual Miss Afro Arts Pageant on March 18th at 1224 Martin Luther King Boulevard.

Mistress of Ceremony, Mrs. Mary Evans, introduced the Reverend Isaac S. Jones for the invocation.

The welcome was given by Ms. Vernita Moore and the occasion was given by Ms. Sheila Johnson.

Ms. Johnson said the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority was pleased to announce the theme for this year's Afro Arts Festival as "The Spirit Lives On" with the sub-theme being, "The Year of the Child. We are pleased to present this years contestants for Miss Afro Arts under our sub-theme," she said.

Mrs. Erma Miles introduced this year's judges who were, Allen K. Jacobs, Mrs. Elma Haywood, Mrs. Mattie Willis, Mr. Matthew Porshe, and Mrs. Cartheda Konchella.

Mrs. Mary Evans, Mistress of Ceremonies introduced the contestants; Little Miss Afro Arts - Lequandra Beckford, Nikita Young, and Shalonda Lester; Jr. Miss Afro Arts, Charlescia Rodriguez, Wildline Coultine, Cheryl Davis, and Chandra Cosby; Miss Afro-Arts - Tangela Marshall, Sharee Sykes, and Tarsha Jones.

A solo was given by Ms. Robin Wilkerson followed by a creative dance by all of the contestants.

The question and answer session was given by Mrs. Ida Corinthian and proved to be a highlight of the evening. Each contestant was asked a different question and the answers surprised everyone.

The question for Nikita Young was: "Nakita, if your found a pretty new puppy in your yard, what would you do with it?"

Nakita, age 5, pondered the question and after a 15 second pause she said, "I'd keep him."

The question for Shalonda Lester was: "Shalonda, Tell us about what you do at home to help out around the house?"

The silence was deafening for about 30 seconds and then the five year old replied, "Wash dishes?"

The question for Lequandra Beckford was: "Lequandra, If you had a $5 bill, what would you buy?"

"Um," she said, "$5 isn't much! I guess I'd buy my mom something good."

The question for Charlescia Rodriguez was: "Charlescia, Do you think television hurts or helps kids?"

"I think it helps kids," she said, "A person can learn a lot from T.V."

The question for Tangela Marshall was: "Tangela, if you could change three things, what would they be?"

"1) I would have a center built for the environmentalists so that they could get together and discuss different ways to clean up our environment.

2.) I would change the way kids dress at school. If they came in with cuts in their jeans in the wrong places, I'd send them home to change clothes.

3.) I would change the way kids use profanity in the hallways at school. I'd send them home for that too!" she concluded.

In the Miss Afro Arts the answers were short.

The question for Sharee Sykes was: "What was the proudest moment of your life?"

"The day I started school," she responded.

We were unable to hear some of the quotes but the ones mentioned shows the depth and intelligence of all of the girls in the competition and the judges told the girls they were all winners.

Natasha Brown, the 1991 Miss Afro-Arts, told the audience that she had enjoyed the title and fun in the contest. For the contestants this year, she said, "Do the best you can and you will do fine." Her court included Little Miss Afro Arts, Walteria Hall, and Jr. Miss Afro Arts, Turnisha Hall.

Special plaques were given to the judges and to Mrs. Ruby Henderson Smith and Mrs. Daisy C. Butts for their help with the event.

The 1992 Little Miss Afro Arts was Shalonda Lester.

The 1992 Jr. Miss Afro Arts was Cheryl Dee Davis and the title of Miss Afro Arts went to Tangela Marshall.

Caller has concerns about fishing contest

They're having the annual fishing and casting contest next week for the Black Gold Jubilee and I would just like to say something about something that has happened for the last two years.

In the casting contest in the toddler division, there were several of the parents who were supposed to be coaching their kids to cast the things into the hoola hoops that they have. The parents were putting their arms around them and they were actually casting the rod and reel for their child.

I think that's very unfair for their children and also for the other children in the contest who do know how to cast in the toddlers division. Some of them can cast but when you have a grown parent casting for them, the ones who are casting for themselves don't stand a chance.

I think it would be nice if you would say something where maybe it won't happen this year and children will have a little bit better chance this year.

Thank you.

Editor's note: Fishing and Casting Chairman Sam Williams says he welcomes this caller's suggestions and wants this person to know he is aware of the problem and has already taken steps to solve the problem.

"I really do appreciate this person coming forward with his concerns," Sam said. "We do our best to provide a fun weekend for the children and the parents."

Sam said a rope will be stretched across the starting line and all participants will be required to stay behind that line. Parents will not be allowed to coach their children and if their child needs coaching to cast the rod and reel, there will be a coach there to help them. If they are unable to cast the rod and reel, they will just have to try again next year when they are a little older.

Sam also said if this caller would like to be one of the coaches, he would appreciate the help. Thank you for Speaking Out.

Correction

A front page story that ran last week in The Sun titled "SWIM voted in" contained an error. We said that Annie Betancourt with the South Florida Water Management District voted against adoption of the SWIM plan. Ms. Betancourt voted for the plan. Franklin Mann, James Nall and Ken Adams cast the dissenting votes.

South Florida Sanitation responds to Speak Out caller

Dear Editor:

In reference to the individual who felt so strongly to "Speak Out" in your March 19, 1992 issue about his lack of garbage service, Randy Stricklin, General Manager of South Florida Sanitation and S & A Trucking, has the following request to make.

I request all individuals who reside in the unincorporated areas and feel they have a complaint about their garbage service to contact my office and I will see the problem is immediately remedied.

In conjunction with this, myself and my staff, will be conducting an inspection of residential garbage cans to insure they are in compliance with existing county ordinances. Residents are reminded that all cans must be no larger than thirty two (32) gallons, have permanent handles and tight fitting lids. Cans may be plastic or metal but must be the type commonly sold as garbage cans. Our intent in doing this inspection is to eliminate the existing 55 gallon drums and 35 gallon blue or yellow drums that are not flared at the top and are almost impossible to empty, especially after a rain.

It is difficult for me or my staff to address someone's complaints when we know nothing about them. So, if anyone has a complaint, I ask that they contact my office at (407) 996-6848.

Resollando Por La Herida

"Lideres del Exilio estan divididos por amargos rencillas y compiten por ventajas politicas". Y quienes son los que se aparecen, a estas alturas, tras la recolección de las firmas, con esa informacion plagada de insidia? No les basta saber que casi un cuarto de millon de exiliados se acaban de poner de acuerdo para solicitar del Señor Presidente Bush que, como ha sucedido en circunstancias parecidas, se nos permita luchar por nuestra libertad, sin que seamos perseguidos encarnadamente?

De sobra saben ellos que esas firmas, con la tinta caliente todavia, sirven para avalar una vez mas el bloque monolitico de cubanos, reunidos en su imperecedero afan de alcanzar la libertad de la Patria inmolada.

Nos estamos refiriendo al reportaje: La Puma del Exilio Cubano, aparecido Marzo 15 - a seis columnas, en la seccion Noticias de El Nuevo Herald.

Maliciosos, dafinos, dedican una pagina casi entera a reproducir, a su manera, ese trabajo aparecido en el Washington Post. Que me perdonen los dignos compatriotas que trabajan y que escriben en el Herald.

Lo primero es recalcar que los lideres del exilio no pueden estar divididos, por la sencilla razon de que nunca han estado unidos. Eso no puede logralo ni Armando Perez Roura, ni nadie. No se lo ha logrado la doctrina sacro-santa de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo. Recuerden aquello de que-yo soy catolico a mi manera. Discernir sobre tal afirmismo, si es que se le puede llamar asi, hace muchas veces tema de nuestro querido Padre Villarronga.

Despues de caer en ese bache pseudocientifico que nos aparta del tema, volvamos al mismo, tras recalcar que los cubanos somos asi, que una dualidad de nuestro caracter (juntos pero no revueltos), que no cedemos nuestro derecho a discrepar, con razon o sin ella. Que cada dia, tras los tristes desengaños del stardecree, nos despierta la aurora con la esperanza vivificadora del regreso, que late en el alma cubana; inclusive en la de aquellos pobres de espiritu que dicen que no volveran. Ya encontraremos a muchos de esos en el puerto a la hora del regreso, arremetiendo, como cubanos al fin, para ver quien llega primero. Siguiendo el tema, el origen y la razon de ser del exilio estriba en la traicion de Fidel Castro y el dominio sovietico de la Isla. Una vez desaparecida la causa - en franco proceso de desintegracion - se iniciara la etapa de reconstrucción del Pais, que esta totalmente arrasado. Precipitar esa caída, al precio impuesto por el Tirano, es la palabra de orden.

Enemigo declarado del embargo comercial del Gobierno Americano contra Cuba, el Herald hace causa comun con Castro, condenando dicho embargo, con el pretexto de que lesiona los intereses del pueblo.

Y para avalar su postura que si es criminal, porque alargarla la agonía de ese pueblo, saca a relucir la opinion de un grupo de cubanos, a los que llama lideres del Exilio. El primero, un mamaracho ex-profesor de marxismo, Ricardo Bofill, que no es lider de nadie a no ser de los comunistas sin Fidel, que esta loco porque se caiga el Stalinismo para volver alla a regodearse con los suyos. Al otro "lider", Raul Masvidal, que no ha sabido ni como liderarse el mismo, le sigue Cernuda, otro comico, a quien no hay quien se lo trague en la Capital del Exilio.

Resollando por la herida, el plan que persigue el Herald es atacar, sacando recursos de a como sea, a Jorge Mas Canosa, lo cual sera objeto del proximo comentario.

Just how big is it?

A comparison look

By Rick Schuster

The proposed SWIM (Surface Water Improvement and Management) Plan for the Everglades calls for the flooding of 58 square miles of valuable farmland and the possible closing of two sugar refinery operations.

For many people, the sheer size of an area 58 square miles is almost hard to conceive of. Just how large is an area of 58 square miles? Large enough to accommodate the City of Manhattan in New York - twice.

You could also put the City of Tallahassee (28.0 square miles) in that space two times and still have space left over. Tallahassee has an estimated population of 81,548 or about 2,912 people for every square mile of land within the city limits.

In 58 square miles, you could put all of the land area of Orlando (39.5 square miles) and neighbors Mickey, Donald and Pluto in the Magic Kingdom, would not feel the least bit cramped.

You could put such Florida cities as Miami (34.3 square miles), or West Palm Beach (40.6 square miles), in such an area with no trouble what so ever.

The combined square miles of the City of Ft. Lauderdale (29.2 square miles), Ft. Myers (15.3 square miles), and Ft. Pierce (11.5 square miles), a total area of 56 square miles, could fit into the area proposed for the plan, and never touch the sides.

Meeting planned for women concerned about SWIM plan

There will be a meeting for Women of the Glades, who are concerned about the recent vote on the SWIM (Surface Water Improvement and Management) plan on Friday, March 27 at noon at the Drawbridge Cafe.

Several women from Belle Glade, Pahokee, South Bay, and Clewiston have expressed concern over what can be done to inform elected officials about the economic effect the SWIM plan will have on the communities within the EAA. They are concerned about their jobs and their families. Women from all walks of life want to respond in some fashion to let the Governor know their displeasure with the South Florida Water Management District Board's recent ruling. This is not an organized group; it's simply women/wives who refuse to stand by mutely and do nothing about the Glades' future.

They intend for the SFWMDB and the Governor to hear from the women of the Glades!

Guest speaker will be Andy Rackley. Lunch can be purchased at the meeting. For more information, RSVP 996-2745.

YOUR CHILD'S FIRST VISIT

We have some good news for today's patient: Kids like going to the dentist! Our staff makes kids' checkup appointments fun. We use a show and tell approach, and explain what we're doing in words that fit a youngster's vocabulary. The drill is "Mr. Whistle," who whistles and squirts water, the x-ray machine is a camera, and our suction is "Mr. Slurpy." We give them rides in our chair, and let them play with the air and water "squirters." It's their job to keep the water "cup full" and "Mr.

Ticker" brushes their teeth. Children are born with certain fears, such as fear of the unknown or fear of falling, but fear of going to the dentist isn't one of them! What parents say and do can help children have a better experience during their first dental visit. Please don't pass on your own fears! We like to see kids at about age 3 for their first visit. We recommend parents bring them in at about age 3 and watch Mommy or Daddy get their teeth cleaned. At this time we show the kids around let them have a ride in the chair, play with the water spray and ask questions, then we recommend they have their first checkup six months later. They have been in the office, are not afraid and usually look forward to these appointments. The "Show-and-Tell" is also a great book to get your kids before their first visit. Don't make the dentist the villain. Dental treatment is something you want for your child.

GATOR TALES

Sunny skies greeted visitors to Glades Day School's Spring Fling last Saturday, helping to make the school's third annual spring fundraiser a great success.

Old and young alike enjoyed a day full of activities, including a pet show, car wash, games, food and a silent auction.

Clayton Bings proved to be a popular attraction once again along with the basketball shot, volleyball tournament and Almost Anything Goes contest.

At one point peanuts rained from the sky when a sheriff's helicopter tossed out pounds of peanuts over the football field for the peanut drop contest.

One event drawing a lot of interest was a KISS THE PIG contest, in which students voted for their "favorite" teacher to kiss a pig. As expected, voting was hot and heavy throughout the day and when the smoke cleared at 3 p.m., English teacher Mrs. Willie Poole and headmaster Byron Walker were declared the high school winners in a tie, while fifth grade teacher Mrs. Debbie Lundy won in the elementary. As the crowd cheered them on, all three good naturedly smoked lips with the not so beautiful wild hog donated by board member Sonny Stein.

The day's events came to a close with the drawings for a Remington 870 shotgun, won by Ray Caruthers, and a 1992 Sun Tracker DL pontoon boat, won by Johnny Schlechter.

GDS would like to thank all faculty, parents, students and friends who participated in the Spring Fling. Your support helps to keep GDS the best it can be!

What happens when you parody characters and plots from almost every Southern play imaginable, and sprinkle them with the flavor of Gone with the Wind?

You get the hilarious "Murder in the Magnolia," the play the Class of '92 is set to present on Friday and Saturday, April 10-11.

According to director, Mrs. Willie Poole, Friday evening's presentation will be a dinner theatre.

Only a limited number of seats will be available for the dinner theatre, so don't wait too late. Seats may be reserved by contacting Mrs. Willie Poole at 996-6769 or 992-9274.

Award-Winning Glades Central Band hosts 8-hour Band-A-Thon to raise $5,000 March 28th

Director Willie Pyfrom. Participants will come from three bands: the celebrated "Maroon Machine" Marching Band, Jazz Band, Concert Band, and additionally, ensembles and soloists.

Band members will take pledges on their performing time from sponsors, much the same as in walk-a-thons and other marathon fundraising activities. Sponsors are encouraged to be generous in their pledges, as a goal of $5,000 must be met in order for the band to make the trip north.

"We're hoping the community will support us in this as they always have in the past," Pyfrom said. "The band always serves the city anytime we're asked." The bands' next public performance will be at the city's Black Gold Jubilee, where the marching band will perform in the parade and the Jazz Band will be featured on stage during the festival.

Belle Glade's Mayor praised the band for its service to the city. "We're proud of the Glades Central band," said Mayor Cate P. Tucker. "They're very community minded and always participate in events that are city oriented." The Glades Central Band has participated in all of the Black Gold Jubilee activities since the inception of the festival and has consistently won the top award for "Best Marching Unit."

Pyfrom says sponsors may request their favorite music from the band's repertoire during the Band-A-Thon. "We will even do a little site reading," if necessary," he continued. "We're good at that."

For additional information or to make pledges please call 996-6989. Let's send our band to State!
